

CHF Media Fund EIS Portfolio

Investment Objective

The CHF Media Fund invests into a series of special purpose vehicles (“spv’s”) which each individually own a unique and original intellectual property (“IP”).

Once a show or concept has been produced and an initial broadcast contract has been entered into with a broadcaster or digital media platform, the spv will aim to generate revenue initially by licensing the broadcast rights to its show or concept on a worldwide basis and by then exploiting the ancillary rights. SPV’s could benefit from a diverse set of revenue streams ranging from broadcasting, publishing and gaming, live shows and theme parks to mobile and internet content and merchandising. For an spv to enter the CHF Media Fund, each show or concept will have been selected via the rigorous process undertaken by the Creative Commercial Committee (“CCC”). The CCC comprises experts in all areas of family entertainment, from the development and creation of the content through to financing, production, broadcast distribution, toy creation and licensing. As such, the CCC is well placed to rigorously screen potential shows or concepts, including the stress test of the commercialisation avenues, to give the IP the best possible chance of success.

Exit Strategy

It is anticipated that the optimum holding period of investment in each SPV will be 3-5 years from the date of first broadcast for a show or the date of first release for other concepts. This is due to the 3 year holding period for S/EIS investments, coupled with industry standard models for family entertainment shows return profiles and the fact that an investment in an SPV may commence before the date of the first broadcast. Pursuant to the rules of EIS, an exact exit cannot be prescribed at the point of investment. However, at the relevant time, with input from the Independent Director, a decision will be made as to the exit likely to provide the highest return for all shareholders. The intention is that CHF will be able to leverage against its shareholding to buy out the Investors in each SPV. It is very important to have various exit strategies for each SPV as Investors, including CHF, can only make a profit upon a successful sale or buy-out. Exit Strategies to be considered are a trade sale of an SPV through management buy-outs, share buy backs, refinancing and liquidation. The Independent Director will take appropriate advice concerning any exit strategy, acting always to best protect Shareholders’ rights.
